Anti-Ragging Policy

Definition of Ragging

"Any conduct by any student or students, whether by word spoken or written or by an act, which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling, with rudeness a fresher or any other student."

Exploiting the students for completing academic task and financial extortion.

Any act of physical abuse including all its variants – sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health of a person.

Any act that prevents disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of other students.

Ragging is a cognizable offence and DIT University will not hesitate to take stern action against offenders.

Measures Taken by University

Educating / updating the students enrolled in various programmes in the beginning of each academic session that there is zero tolerance for ragging.

Strictly enforcing the relevant provisions of the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009.

Each student as well as his/her parents/ guardian, are mandatorily required to submit separate undertakings in the form of an affidavit at the time of admission / registration to the effect that they are aware of the prohibition of ragging and the punishment prescribed both under penal laws as well as under these regulations.

Anti-ragging hoardings, banners, billboards are displayed at prominent places including hostels, canteens, messes, cafeterias, buses, playgrounds, lawns, labs, workshops etc.

Surprise checks of hostels/canteens/cafeteria/bus stop to be carried out regularly.

A close and regular liaison is maintained with the local police to guard against the incident of ragging. FIR in police station on all reported ragging cases.

An anti-ragging committee of the students is also formed.

Pursuant to the directives of the Hon'ble Apex Court and in the light of the UGC Regulations 2009, the University constitutes the Anti-Ragging Committees and Anti-Ragging Squads for overseeing the strict and meticulous implementation of all the directives.

In case any student encounter ragging by any of the senior students, he/she is immediately required to contact the members of the anti-ragging committee, who will take an immediate corrective action and necessary proceedings will be initiated against the culprits engaged in ragging activities.
